This letter is to inform parents/guardians that my Spanish III classes will be discussing the Festival of San Fermin, which includes the daily Running of the Bulls and bullfights. Topics that will be addressed include:

- * a brief history of the festival
- * festival traditions
- * traditional dress for festival-goers and its significance
- * basic information about the Running of the Bulls
- * vocabulary words relating to the festival and the Running of the Bulls
- * pictures of San Fermin Festival, Running of the Bulls, and bullfights

During this brief unit, photos and videos that may be considered graphic will be shown. Discretion is advised. If you or your student would like to opt out of participating in this unit, please contact me via e-mail (aford@nafcs.k12.in.us) or phone (812-542-8504 ext. 3028) before we start the unit on Monday, May 16. Any student opting out will temporarily be removed from the class for the duration of the unit. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Amanda Ford
